STAFF REPORT

Fall is here, and definitely we are in full steam. Our programs are picking up steam, attendance seems to be more normal at both Storytime and Tween programs, and our first Family Storytime had 5 children and 3 adults attend. We hope we are transitioning.

I'm trying to finalize reports....with the State deadline on October 31, the Annual Survey is mostly done, but a few tricky categories are left to track down statistics to complete. The checks from the State library have both been received and deposited, with the Direct State Aid check up significantly, while the Open Access/Interlibrary Loan reimbursement check down only slightly. After attending the state library meetings, I expected a decrease in the last check, but this was not as much as the increase. With the Iowa Library Association meeting this month, it feels like a very short month, and finalizing all the reports is challenging me.

The first parts of the electrical work in the staff areas have been completed. When we had a staff work day, we re-organized the craft rooms and the storage room extensively. We had extra help with board member Matt Emerson joining us, and he was greatly appreciated. We all appreciated the lunch that day, as we didn't hardly slow down. We have several on staff with gluten issues, and it was challenging to find something everyone could eat....we found out that the Pizza Ranch had a pizza that would solve that problem. Maria from Gilbert took on the attic as a personal project, and reorganized that space with a detailed list of everything there, coming back to complete the job on Monday. I worked the full day, and stayed late to finalize paychecks with the hours from the day added accurately.

There are several bills I didn't anticipate to be as high as they are this period. The copier lease includes a condition that up to 1500 black and white copies are included in the cost, and 200 color copies. The bill we received includes all the copies from the test period and training, and I have called and politely asked for an adjustment of those costs, since some of the test copies were generated by their employees while they were trying to sell the product. I should hear back from them by board meeting time.

Also I had enlisted the aid of Service Unlimited to clean up the courtyard, and they also trimmed the trees lining the building. The courtyard had been left in a very unsightly state after the fiberoptic cable was run, and was not tended by the city. After realizing this was not going to be done, and noting we had some money donated towards landscaping, hiring that work done seemed necessary. Although it is not different, it is cleaned up. The bill includes removal of one tree, and the trimming of the remaining trees and bushes.

The ILA conference had fewer exhibitors this year that had materials that interested me, or was on my "checklist". I was seeking more ideas for children's furnishings, and didn't see much that would help our children's area. With that in mind, we will try a few of the Amazon entries I showed at our last board meeting. I did speak with some exhibitors who had some space saving ideas, that might be considered for our library. There were two companies there who had movable shelving systems, that might be considered for staff areas and possibly the Kinne wing.

I was able to purchase some books at considerable savings, and attended a number of very helpful sessions. I will be sharing some of the information I collected for programming for youth with both Rachael and Shelly. One of the best sessions was called "Work Smarter, Not Harder", and offered some good suggestions for managing staff.

LIBRARY BOARD MEETING 9/26/17

Meeting convenes at 5:32 pm with Feil, Cummings, Fournier and Emerson present.

Alterations or changes to agenda: new business: Fred Darbonne accreditation made by Feil.

Motion to approve amended agenda made by Cummings, seconded by Fournier, motion approved unanimously.

Motion to approve the minutes made by Fournier, seconded by Emerson. Motion passes unanimously.

Treasurer's report:

Questions about the magazine budget. Taylor indicates that magazines and newspapers are our largest expense and that the Des Moines Register and Ames tribune are expensive.

Some items came back for review from an audit from the city regarding a visit to the ILA, and a clerical error on a mileage expenses paid to an employee billed to Story City and Gilbert in the amount of $48.15.

Motion made by Fournier to not seek reimbursement in the amount of $48.15 from the employee because the amount doesn't justify the effort. Motion seconded by Cummings, motion passes unanimously.

Explanation of travel expenses of Taylor and staff in the current billing period.

Questions were made about the Symantec licensing issue. Antivirus software configuration was needed to protect library computers. Questions about former copying vendor Marco.

Motion made by Fournier to approve the bills, seconded by Emerson. Motion passes unanimously.

Circulation report:

Concerns about the library being affected by the road construction numbers are down for August. E-books are doing well. E-books have dropped below audio books again however. Correspondence & communication: letter from Fran confirming her welfare following hurricane Irma.

Board training: An overview of the State of Iowa Interlibrary loan website. All users need a personal login and password. Users can access this page from home.

Gilbert update: no attendees to state tween program. Things are going well according to Teri. Reorganization planned for next month on the books and shelving. Books will be coming back to Story City to the sale room. New business:

Iowa library association meeting in October: $110 for 2 day conference in Coralville.

Motion made to approve Taylor attending the ILA conference meeting made by Fournier and seconded by Emerson. Motion passes unanimously.

Budget meeting presentation to city council on November 6: Discussion on needs for the next 3-5 years. Discussions of salaries for employees in comparison with other city employees, space analysis and issues, and staffing development.

Story festival update: Thursday night was good, with over 150 attending at the movie theater. GCC is going to pull out of the Storytelling Festival completely in 2018. Successful and it did garner some income. Workshops were helpful. Dates will need to be of concern in the future.

Pastor Fred Darbonne from the UMC church has training in planning and has extended a hand to offer his expertise in doing outreach to help with our certifications. Taylor believes that our certification is good through 2020, but we would want to start exploring and planning for our reaccreditation process starting next year.

Old business:

Space analysis recommendations:

- items will be reorganized next week.
- moving a drop power line into middle of the library and moving computers in to "horseshoe" shaped desk, (which may be expensive)
- Organizing the craft room and tubs. Go through the ceiling.

Furniture replacement in childrens' area.

Demco furniture

Motion to approve $500 to budget for childrens' furniture made by Feil, seconded by Cummings. Motion passes unanimously.

Director's review - reminder

Motion to adjourn made by Fournier Reminder: Next meeting, Thursday, October 26th, 5:30 pm, 2017
